

Report of the Review of the Senior Common Room Constitution (1994)

Circulated with Draft Constitution for SCR Members' input from 19th April to 18th May 2016

Background

During the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Senior Common Room on 27th February 2015, it was resolved that the incoming Executive Committee set in motion a process for the review of the Club's constitution (1994) with a view to aligning it with the Constitution of Kenya (2010), and also with the aim of refining it to enhance accountability and efficiency in the governance of the Club. Consequently, upon assuming office, the SCR Executive Committee appointed a Constitutional Review Committee, to be chaired by Dr. Reginald M.J. Oduor (Executive Committee Member and also a person with total visual disability). The other two members of the Committee were Mr. D.K. Macoco and Dr. Jacob G. Kariuki. The Review Committee was also mandated to identify a female member of the Club for co-option with a view to enhancing its representative character. The Review Committee requested Dr. Joy M. Kiiru to join it, whereupon she obliged.

The Review Committee held a total of nine (9) meetings in the period between 15th July, 2015 to 8th March, 2016.

On or about 15th August, 2015, the Committee issued a notice to the Club's membership requesting for their input into the review process. Thereafter, the Committee set about reviewing the Constitution, taking into consideration the Club members' comments, together with the results of the Committee's own deliberations on all the articles of the Constitution.

The Committee made numerous changes to the 1994 SCR Constitution. In general, the document was amended in the following ways:

- The chapters were re-ordered with a view to consolidating related articles.
- The wording was made more gender-sensitive.
- The rights and responsibilities of members with disabilities were recognised.
- Numerous typographical errors were corrected. It is noteworthy that even "University" at the top of the 1994 Constitution was mis-spelt.

Below we outline the main changes made to the SCR Constitution (1994).
